

In Him Alone

by T. Heller

Lyrics

Our Master warned us long ago that we'd know trouble.
The path through the narrow gate yields its portion of sorrow.
We may suffer here but we're assured a better tomorrow.
Rest in His promises for He gave us His word.
He is real, grace has a face and offers love unending.
His plan for every soul leads to joy and rebirth.
Christ lives today inside every true believer.
In Him alone will you find peace on this earth.
We are not promised a life filled only with sunshine.
Disciples are forged by trial as believers
Jesus walked this land to light the way for us.
He overcame the world and conquered the deceiver.
He is real, grace has a face and offers love unending.
His plan for every soul leads to joy and rebirth.
Christ lives today inside every true believer.
In Him alone will you find peace on this earth.
He lit the way to show the path to love and peace.
We each have a purpose in His plan and in His will.
Trust in the Savior and lean on His compassion.
He'll show the way, in Him alone you'll be fulfilled.
He is real, grace has a face and offers love unending.
His plan for every soul leads to joy and rebirth.
Christ lives today inside every true believer.
In Him alone will you find peace on this earth.
